Check Out These Rox

We're out in my back yard the other day, my aunt and I are, and she says to me, "Where is the lovely music coming from? It sounds as if your whole garden is alive with sound!" Now you have to know my Aunt. She has never referred to my music as "lovely" before. But that's just what happens when you find great sound unexpectedly in the big, beautiful out-of-doors. Like you right now reading this, right? So anyway, I point to these two rocks and she nearly falls over.

If it were in her lingo, she'd have said, "No WAY!"

Well, WAY!

SpeakerCraft makes all shapes and sizes of singing rocks, including these little beauties in either sandstone or granite. That's tan or gray around my house. And I play mine all the time! I leave them out year-round, too, because they can take it. And you never know when you're going to want a little music to shovel snow by!
